A NOTE FROM OUR CO-PASTORS: THE SAME BIRD

Like me, you too may check into social media (Facebook and the like) on a fairly regular basis. It's a great way to keep up with family members who are spread across the country. The pictures that are posted often go a long way toward bridging the gaps between the times we are physically in the same place.

It's also a good way to gauge the "temperature" across the country and the world with regard to breaking news and other events.

Of course, there's a lot of "other stuff" that makes its way into the social media outlets. Like me, you too may be reluctant to post things for fear of being misunderstood or yelled at or getting things wrong. Although I rarely post anything, I appreciate those who do (well, most of the time).

Recently, however, someone posted something that I felt compelled to "share" on Facebook and likewise here in our newsletter. It was a picture of an elderly Native American man. Superimposed over his image were these words:

"What if I told you that the left wing and the right wing belong to the same bird?"

Although I am fairly certain that the intended target of the meme was the current political climate in our country, I think it also is an important cautionary note for friends, families, neighbors and church families.

There are lots of ways to build on this quote. Of course there's the obvious truth that the one-winged bird won't get very far very fast. Balance and equal strength are important so that the "bird" can soar. (Or, a somewhat different image: Just think about what happens when the rower is only pulling on one oar...)

Another way to interpret this quote is also obvious: There is always more that unites us than ought to divide us. We have much more in common than we usually are willing to admit. Often barriers and walls are broken down by the simple act of getting to know someone and realizing that we share many of the same worries, hopes and dreams.

Our ways of expressing ourselves may be vastly different, but if we ask enough questions and share enough of our life experiences and our "story" we often find that the amount of common ground between us only increases. It rarely decreases.

There's so much we still have to learn, so much to share, so much to do as Jesus' disciples here in this place. I pray that our "body" will remain strong and active and vital, even as we come into contact and conversation with others who may have vastly different ideas or approaches to our common life, but who share the hope and desire that, together, with God's help we will "soar"!

Pastor David & Pastor Nancy

3RD QUARTER MISSIONS — It's hard to imagine but we are already starting our 3rd Quarter Mission project!! This is one we have supported for a number of years- because Presbyterians support public education! It is DonorsChoose, a website where teachers post requests for classroom resources. This helps offset the money that teachers spend out of pocket each year to give their students the best classroom experience that they can. We will be collecting your donations to add to the budget and will select our educational projects at the end of September. We'll be sure to let you know where the money went!!

THE MISSIONS COMMITTEE would like to thank all of you who so generously donated to our first quarter local mission. We had received a total of $906 which was divided between Harvest Home and Manna House as follows: Harvest Home, 1/2 Local Missions $223.00, 1/2 Souper Bowl $105.00, 1/2 Quarterly Budget $125.00. Total: $453.00. Manna House, 1/2 Local Missions $223.00, 1/2 Souper Bowl $105.00, 1/2 Quarterly Budget $125.00. Total: $453.00 The church collected $1245 in donations for One Great Hour of Sharing of which half was sent to Highlands Presbytery and half was donated to Camp Johnsonburg's "Marked for the Future" campaign.

JOYS & CONCERNS OF OUR CHURCH — The Deacons will begin a new program for reaching out to members of the congregation. A list of those who would benefit from a "Thinking of You" card will be compiled from the Joys and Concerns list. We will also try an additional method of identifying names. A "Thinking of You" box will be placed on the coffee hour counter where anyone can submit for our attention, a name, address (if not a member in the directory), and perhaps a reason if appropriate. You can also send information to Alycia who will relay it to the Deacons. We look forward to connecting with more of you because who doesn't enjoy getting a card in the mail?!

ICE CREAM SOCIAL! The discernment team continues it's work, leading us to the tasks that will be prepare us for the future. Many of you have viewed the Timeline in the Fellowship Hall and have added your own highlights. Our next task is to have conversations about what we imagine and desire about our future. How do you see God working in our congregation and community? What could we be called to in the future? The discernment team decided the best way to have these conversations is with ICE CREAM! So you are invited to an Ice Creams Social on Thursday, July 18 at 6:30 pm in the Fellowship Hall. Put it on your calendar and plan on a relaxing evening with friends - and ice cream!

New Member SPOTLIGHT

Iris Kymer rejoined the congregation as an active member on June 30th. Iris has been a longtime member of the Branchville community. The Kymer Campground that she and her husband ran for many years kept her away from worship, especially in the summer, but she decided it was time to reactivate her membership in the congregation and we were delighted to celebrate this happy reunion.

Congratulations

Ben Hopper and Cathy Goldsworthy were united in marriage by Nancy and David Young at an outside ceremony in Lafayette on Thursday, June 27th. Congratulations and best wishes to Cathy and Ben as their life together continues to unfold!

Baptism

Lily Marie Williams, daughter of Chris and Becky Williams, Granddaughter of Mike Lutz and Grandniece of Debbie Anderson, was baptized by David and Nancy on Sunday, June 30th. Lily, who has been a child of God since before she was born, is now part of the family of faith and we rejoice in her baptism!

BAPS TEMPLE TRIP

On 6/26 13 of us traveled 2 hours to Robbinsville, NJ to visit the Baps Swaminaran Akshardham Hindu temple. We were given a very informative tour of the massive campus. It is hard to explain the beauty of the temples both inside and out. The interior is very intricately hand carved of 3 different types of marble. The basic philosophies of this sect of Hinduism was explained to us. It is the only branch that worships someone both on earth as well as a spiritual God. (s) If you ever have the opportunity to visit, please do, as you will not be disappointed!

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION CORNER

SUNDAY SCHOOL SCOOP

- ◇ We will be supporting Frankford Plains Methodist church in Augusta with their VBS program. They have a fun and dynamic VBS which has been going for 60+ years! This year it will be the week of August 12th to 16th. Please inquire at: frankfordplainschurch@gmail.com or call the church office at 973-702 -0334. We need VBS volunteers. Use the signup sheet in the Fellowship Hall to let us know if you're interested. For those who are volunteering: this is a reminder to please attend the planning meeting at Frankford Plains church Tues, 6/25 at 6pm.
- ◇ Please mark your calendars for our Rally Day and Mission Fair on Sept 8th.
- ◇ We are in need of people to sign up both to teach and to aid in our classroom starting in September, as it is state mandated that there be 2 adults present in every classroom setting. On behalf of our children, thank you!
- ◇ The State of NJ, and all mainline churches, including the PC(USA) now mandate that any volunteers who work with children must complete a criminal background check every 3 years. The cost of this requirement will be provided by our church. No cost to the volunteer. It is part of the reality of our ultimate goal of keeping our children safe. This new policy will start in Sept.

ADULT EDUCATION

- ◇ Our Pastors will present the outcomes of the General Assembly meeting on Sunday July 7th during Coffee Hour.

WORSHIP NOTES

Every time we worship, we hear the Word of God that comes to us through the scriptures. We are prepared to hear it through our confession, hearing of the assurance of God's forgiveness and sharing peace with one another. The Prayer for Illumination is our plea for the Spirit to guide the reading and hearing of scripture. We ask that our hearts as well as our ears are open to whatever God has to say to us.
